Why are you interested in attending 2023 Legislative Day?

What role do governments play in your real estate business? How should the real estate industry deal with government issues?

How are GAOR's Government Affairs events and communication with government officials important to our industry?

What GAOR committees do you currently serve on? If none, are you interested in serving on a committee?

Note: Committee membership is not required in order to attend Legislative Day.

What you need to know about Legislative Day

- Application and RAF contribution are due to GAOR by Friday, March 15, 2023. Incomplete submissions after the deadline will not be guaranteed reservations for Legislative Day. A check for $148 made out to “REALTOR® Action Fund” or proof of online payment (in full or installments; pay online here) is due March 15.
- It is assumed you will travel with the GAOR group to Sacramento. GAOR will secure your airfare from Burbank or LAX departing on Tuesday, May 2 and returning in the early evening of Thursday, May 4. You are responsible for your own ground transportation and/or parking at LAX or Burbank. Parking and ground transportation fees may be reimbursable. If you travel on a different day or time, you must make your own arrangements. If you bring a spouse or guest, you must pay for his or her airfare and group dinners; it is not guaranteed that your spouse or guest will be permitted into any meetings, unless he or she is also a member.
- C.A.R. Committee meetings are an important part of this trip. As a part of you joining us in for Legislative Day on May 3, you will agree to attend the meeting for at least one C.A.R. Committee – any open committee – that matches your interests. Most committees will meet on May 2.
- Hotel accommodations will be secured in coordination with C.A.R. event management staff. Most hotel stays will be at the Sheraton Grand or Hyatt Regency Hotels across from the State Capitol Building. Due to space restrictions and the high number of attendees, GAOR cannot guarantee that you will stay in one of these hotels. We are making additional reservations in other nearby hotels that are appropriate for business travel. If you wish to stay additional nights, please coordinate with GAOR. You must pay on your own for extra hotel nights.
- Refer to the GAOR Travel Policy for what kinds of expenses are reimbursable. When in doubt, ask GAOR staff in advance of the trip. Send any receipts for reimbursement no later than 30 days after the completion of travel. Allow 2-4 weeks for processing. Save all receipts! Receipts are required for reimbursement; credit card statements will not be accepted.
